WAVC SOCIAL MEDIA POLICY

Our Commitment

Western Australia Veterans Cricket have an obligation to ensure a safe physical and emotional environment is maintained. WAVC places a strong emphasis on our members Mental Health, so cyber bullying of any kind is unacceptable This includes cyber safety and the safe and responsible use of Information and Communication Technology (ICT). Our Members and others who engage in our social media platforms have a responsibility to use ICT in a safe and responsible way.

All those involved in WAVC will create a cybersafe environment by:

- Using the Club and Association name, motto, crest and/or logo only in an appropriate way in line with the organisation's guidelines.
- Using our website(s) to provide information about competitions, committees, policies, rules, social events or other important sport related issues.
- Using SMS and/or email by members to communicate officially sanctioned events.
- Using the official social network pages to promote positive cricket news and events (with permission obtained from featured individual(s). Explicit permission must be obtained for all third parties present in published photographs, even those in the background.
- Ensuring content of posts or electronic communication doesn't breach The Spirit of Cricket.
- Not engaging in cyber bullying, including but not limited to:
 - harassing, teasing, intimidating or threatening another person via electronic means,
 - sending or posting inappropriate digital pictures or images, email / instant / phone / text messages, or website postings (including social network sites ie Facebook or blogs) and is irrespective of whether the page could be viewed by the wider public or not,
- Members will remain responsible for and be vigilant of the content and security of their individual accounts such as email, social networking (ie Facebook), micro blogging (ie Twitter), video sharing (ie YouTube, WhatsApp), picture sharing (ie Instagram, Facebook, Stack App) and mobile phones.

The WAVC will take any breaches of the policy seriously. Any person (including, but not limited to, players, officials, coaches, members, umpires and spectators) who breach this policy can be charged and called to account before a disciplinary committee.
